Meetings are not planned for all vicinities, but while I am in your area call, visit, invite a friend and make plans to see the film.

The Schmids had a busy Holiday Season. All attended a family wedding in Chicago. Cathy Malishke and Gregory Szpak were married December 28, 1974.

Paul Moudry visited and assured us he will return as Program Director. Denny Griebel came from Dallas, Texas. Denny plans to return to school next summer.

Bob Snediker visited Bob McCormick, Bob Jeub, and came to St. Paul to join Marie Schmid, Frank Countryman, Tim Flood, Dan Kenny, Rob Schmid for skiing and you know they reminisced and I found out a lot of things I didn't know about you last summer, some of which I will bring along with me on my travels.

Dan Schmid asked about the Rabbits for Summer of 1975.
A note from Mike Kirke -- he likes Notre Dame.

Marie Schmid is missing the below zero weather. Is attending a 4 week seminar at CIDOC, a special language school in Cuernavaca, Mexico. She visited Martha Lopez. I visited with Martha on the telephone and she will be back at camp for 6 weeks. Sue Rauenhorst called and she will return for the third period. Mark Rauenhorst, former camper, will be married in August. Peter Kronschabel stopped by while we were inserting and timing the new camp movies. Peter was the first to see some of the pictures. Tom Schmid visited Steve Dubbs, former camper, at Izaty's Lodge. They were skiing at Quadna, near Grand Rapids. Enjoyed the winter activities they participated in at the Lodge. Bill Kronschabel, former camper, graduated from Wm. Mitchell School of Law in January -- Congratulations! Jack Schaaf and Bill Marzolf have been busy preparing the film. They have done a great job. Did Mr. Marzolf get you in the movies last summer? You'll soon find out!! Mary and Dan Groebner have a new address: 1922 Franklin Ave. S.E., Mpls., Mn. 55414.

We have two staff in the freshman class at the Medical School at the Univ. of Minn. George Battis and Dan Groebner. Rob Schmid says Hi to all you trippers who went on his extended BWCA Canoe trip and he is planning that 16-day trip. If you plan to go, you better let him know.

As I write to you tonight, it is 15 below zero and we are having an old fashioned Minnesota blizzard and I love it. There is something so peaceful, serene and quiet about a night like this. Soon I will go for a walk along the Mississippi and stop at a friend's for a cup of cocoa, warm up and return. One then appreciates the warmth and protection from the powerful WIND, the good feeling after being very cold.

NEWS FROM THE OUTDOOR EDUCATION CENTER

In the last Newsletter, we incorporated our two programs, thus to keep all informed on what is happening at Foley. We do need Reporters and news.

The Buffalo have a unique way of keeping warm when the weather turns cold. Mr. Davis tells me that the Master of the herd will give warning and they will exercise in a group and thus protect themselves from the elements.

She is associated with our Department of Natural Resources in Minnesota. She will be back with you on the trails at Echo Lake in May and Sept.

Bob Gagner went West in December and visited the Sandborn Outdoor Education Center in Colorado. It is a private camp in the mountains during the summer, as is Foley.

Glen Sherwood was re-elected to the Minnesota House of Representatives last November.

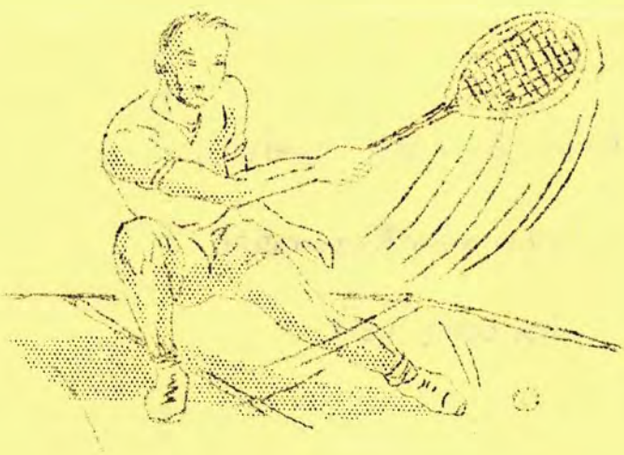
THE TRIP

Since the beginning of Camp Foley, tripping has been an important activity. The B.W.C.A. Trip is a 16 to 21 day voyage through beautiful islands and lakes in the wilderness to be taken by our selected boys who have developed their canoeing and camping skills to the peak of their ability. For those who are interested, please let us know. The trip will even be bigger and better than last year. I wish to thank those who went with me last year and hope to see you again.

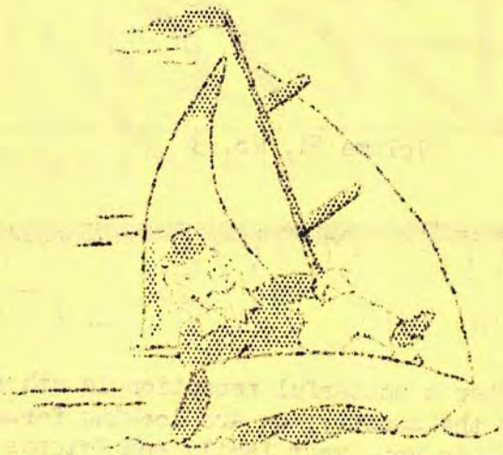
Rob Schmid

TENNIS BUMS



We have two brand new courts that are just waiting to be played on. We will have expert tennis instruction. Let's see who can be the best.

AHOY MATES!



The ultimate in sailing is taking a trip on a yacht. Well, boy, there is a possibility of taking a 7 day trip on Lake Superior; you would be the crew. Just think, living aboard a ship like the pirates of long ago. What an experience! Those who are interested, please let us know in advance.

DISCOVER THE UNDERWORLD

Scuba diving could become a part of Foley for boys over 12 years old. It would be a certified course taught by Certified National Instructors if there is enough interest. To become eligible, you would have to register prior to coming to Camp. If interested, let us know. Just think, the treasure that you might discover!

CAMPERS... DID YOU FORGET?

If you bring a new friend to camp, Marie will give you a double canteen.

SOME WANTS

Paul Moudry wants to be thrown in the lake. Tim Flood bets you can't swamp his Canoe. Bob Jeub wants beach duty. Marie Schmid is going to make tacos this summer for the whole camp. She spent two months in Cuernavaca, Mexico this winter attending CIDOC, a language school; she should know Spanish and taco making very well by this time.

Sue Rauenhorst will make homemade ice cream for the whole camp. Yogi can't wait to play basketball and field hockey. He will have plenty of tricks for the girls too. All these people are looking forward to seeing you at Camp this summer.

Every day I ask hopefully,

whether your Registration

has come yet!

CAMP FOLEY

What's up for '75?

Fun, Fun, Fun, Fun...

THE HORSES ARE WAITING -- They have had a good rest and are all set for your companionship. Horses love children and children love horses, so all together we should have a good time. A new trail from Stewart Lake through the back country for an overnight, a swim in Echo Lake and a good night's rest underneath the stars? I am ...

THE TENNIS COURTS ARE READY -- finally completed and and ready for you to practice your serve or volley. We plan to use the Winner's Mark testing system as a guide for progress and to help the tennis players to know where their weak and strong points are. This system is being used in many of the tennis clubs to instruct beginners through intermediates.

THE BOUNDARY WATERS CANOE TRIP IS BEING PLANNED -- Campers who have passed their Red Cross Intermediates in swimming and have spent the week at Camp Foley in preparation are eligible. The week preparation is to learn outdoor skills like portaging a canoe and to make the final plans. Campers who qualify are then off to spend 10-18 days in the wilderness. If you are interested in this canoe trip, please write us a note about your interest.

SCUBA DIVING IS BEING ORGANIZED -- If you have passed your Intermediates in swimming and are twelve years or older, you are eligible to participate in this program. A qualified instructor will come to camp to instruct those interested.

AND ALL THE FUN ACTIVITIES AT CAMP FOLEY ARE BEING PREPARED FOR YOUR ARRIVAL -- We must not forget the fun of sailing, waterskiing, canoeing, swimming, archery, riflery, golf, three-day canoe trips, overnights, athletics and .. I could go on and on talking of all the fun things to do at Camp. I remember popcorn parties, homemade ice cream, floating down the Pine River, campfires, sailing regattas and all those other special events. I am ready for another summer. How about YOU Hope to see you soon.

HISTORY IS MADE AT CAMP FOLEY

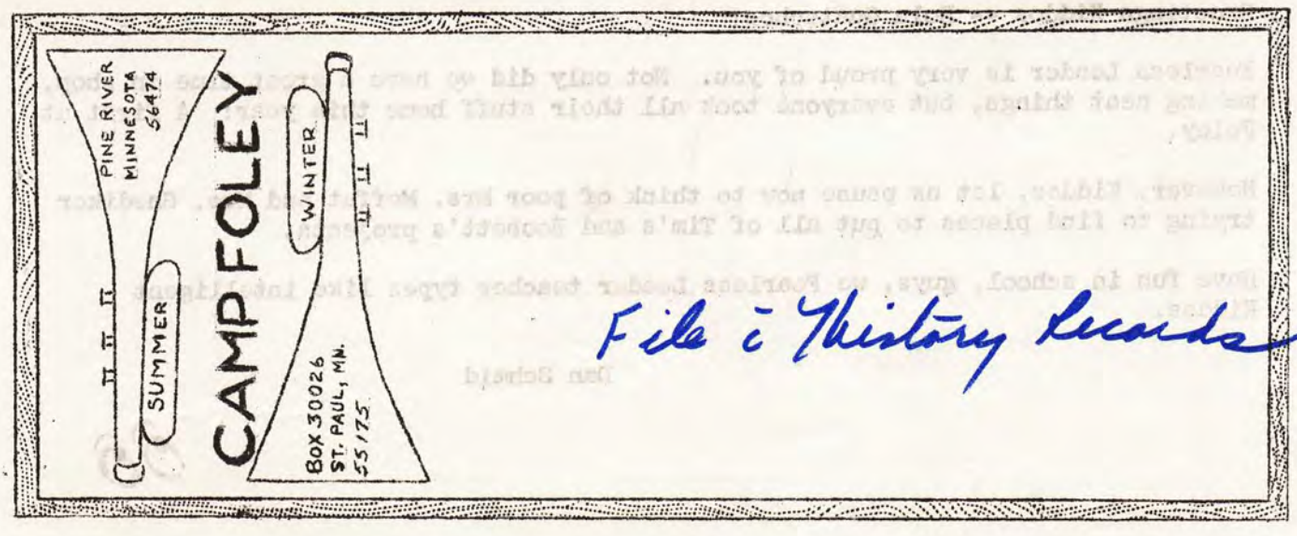
LAND HO!

This was one of the best summers ever for Regatta sailing by Foley campers, as they brought home 7 trophies in the face of excellent competition.

A sailor's dream came true for 14-year old PAUL GERRARD. (The fates played a hand by returning Paul and his buddies from the Canadian Canoe Trip after the regular season -- providing him the opportunity to sail in his fourth Regatta of 1975.) For the summer, Paul won three 1st Place Trophies and a 2nd Place Trophy, which added up to the ultimate sailing award. The Whitefish Yacht Club presented the X Boat Class Commodore's Trophy of 1975 to Paul Gerrard.

CONGRATULATIONS, Paul, from everyone at Camp Foley. This is the first Commodore's Trophy ever achieved by anyone at Camp. Excellent sailing!!!

However, Paul wasn't the only camper to win, place or show. Steve Donovan won a 3rd Place in Regatta 2 and, along with Paul's 1st in Regatta 4, came a clean sweep for Foley with Lee McCormick winning 2nd Place and Kevin Mahoney bringing home a 3rd Place. Well done, Maties!!



File i History Records

After a high-pitched and continuous assault by the field archers, the camp is safe for another year from the ravages of the STAGAUSARUS. Word has it that due to the efforts of Pat Lindsay, the beast has retreated to a more favorable environment. We can only hope that the beast will recuperate during the long winter months so that he may again enjoy our spirited struggles with it next summer. I hope the many arrows that Jimmy Trousdale and other campers made this summer for this would surely scare him off ... as would any knowledge of the Camp Foley archery team made up of Armando Menchaca, Juan Pablo Ochoa, Kevin Schammel, John Barton and Bob Greving. However, as proven by our archery meet with Camp Mishawaka, Camp Foley may be the safer of the two places for a fierce STAGAUSARUS. In any case, I urge all of the Foley archers to keep in practice over the winter so that everybody is ready to go again next summer.

Jerry Dotson

A true spirit of adventure stirred at Foley this summer with the genesis of a new concept in Trip Canoeing -- The 3-Day Greater Whitefish Exploration. Alternately called the "Lazy Sioux", the trip was routed from camp to Foley's property in Little Pine Lake, to Tepee Island, and back to camp. Included in the experience were an afternoon devoted to the clearing and creation of the first night's campsite, an evening fraternizing with the friendly locals, and an ever-continued frisbee football game at the Cross Lake-Little Pine Dam (with halftime entertainment including paperless toilets, fresh monkey-bar blisters, and a mind-boggling display of courage and physical prowess in a dramatic frisbee rescue).

The trip concept, to leave and return via water, was designed to combat the rising costs of transportation. More importantly, however, it provided for greater utilization and appreciation of the beauty, adventure and fun within Foley's easy grasp, and gave campers the opportunity and time for pure enjoyment. Few experiences match the tranquil peace of an evening's paddle, the lessons of interpersonal relations and the concept of true maturity to be found on Tepee Island, or the unabashed pleasure of channel flipping.

Thanks to the campers themselves, the trip was a great one that will undoubtedly be rehashed for many seasons to come. Surely the season of '76 will herald another.

Bob Alt

SHOP:

Greetings Kiddos -- Hola Guatachos!

Fearless Leader is very proud of you. Not only did we have a great time in shop, making neat things, but everyone took all their stuff home this year! A first at Foley.

However, Kiddos, let us pause now to think of poor Mrs. Moffet and Mrs. Snediker trying to find places to put all of Tim's and Boobett's projects.

Have fun in school, guys, we Fearless Leader teacher types like intelligent Kiddos.

Dan Schmid

CABIN ACTIVITIES:

On the afternoon of July 27, 1975 I was peacefully spending rest period on my bed when arch criminal Paul Moudry informed me that my cabin had canoes for cabin activities that very afternoon. Immediately my fiends in captivity "Brain" Snediker and Mike Hurtgen dissented, but when I told them we would bring a frisbee, Rich Knox convinced them to go.

On the way to the canoes, I was accosted by Super Villain Jerry Dotson, who said he knew of buried treasure on Dead Man's Point in the Trout Lake Channel. With this news the fiends departed. While cruising through Hidden Lake Tom Gallagher's canoe was almost tipped by a marauding King Fish. Meanwhile Gerardo Valdes, Francisco Lagos and Gonzalo Arrangois were sure to avoid like hazards when I told them the hidden treasure was a booty of CANTEENS!

As we drew near to Dead Man's Point, Kurt Leuthold and Paul Meekin jumped ashore to be greeted by Jay Ray Dotson, who being the littlest yet sneakiest villain, told them that he personally buried the treasure and at once his Body Guard "Fafner" and he departed.

My crew dug frantically for the treasure only to find more sand ... finally the fiends gave up and went swimming frisbee throwing. After much frustrating effort, "Fafner" and Jay Ray returned to guide the Rogues to the treasure, which they promptly devoured. As soon as they were satisfied, I loaded the canoes and we paddled back to their containment spots in Cabin Mingo, Camp Foley. Once again I, Greg Moffet, foiled the evil attempts of Paul Moudry to liberate my Captive Fiends.

The horsemobile transported two-thirds of the campers in each session to Country Trails Riding Stable for 1/2-day rides, overnights, evening rides or cattle roundups. The daily chant was heard:

"I want King"
"Me Thunder"
"Don't ride Red"
"All Clover does is eat"
"Horse and goggle for Sunny"
"Ranger won't go."

The favorites and not so favorites, but a well known line was heard, "All horses are good horses and all horses go". We won't forget John Tierney riding Red while thinking it was King. Or Page Hereford and Tim Mahoney's circus act of Page's horse slipping and spilling Page on the wet grass, Tim and his horse jumping over Page, Page and Tim losing their horses and being rescued by two other riders to be thrown in attempting to ride double.

Riding was full of the unexpected and the expected. Five overnights survived the two long days of riding, the hot sun, the rain, the mosquitoes and the swim in Echo Lake -- all in good spirits. The expected happened -- a canteen was lost and the bread squashed, but how about the racoon that ate the hamburger buns or the horses that ran away?

Cattle roundups were exciting and interesting -- "They're going the wrong way", or "Where did that stray go?" Remember the little blind calves? How many campers went home with cattle skulls and bones?

Horseback riding was a lot of fun and many good memories. Riding over the fields with the sun setting and the cool summer breeze on your back will always be remembered.

WEDDING BELLS OR DINNER BELL

The last group at Camp Foley did not wear blue jeans and T-shirts, nor did they sit around a campfire. It was a beautiful October Saturday -- the sun was shining and the air was warm. This last group was very unusual. They were dressed in suitcoats and dresses and were patiently waiting in the camp chapel. What was happening? Why weren't they playing tennis or sailing? It wasn't even Sunday! And dresses at Camp Foley? The dinner bell rang and no one stirred from the church or raced to the dining hall. This group was sure strange! Then from across the flagpole field a figure in a long, white dress could be seen and organ music was heard. It seemed too real to be happening at camp -- it couldn't be a wedding, could it? Yet wasn't there a rumor last summer of Rob Schmid being engaged to Mary Wemeier? The ceremony began, friends and relatives filled the chapel and Rob and Mary were married on the 11th day of October. Congratulations, Rob and Mary and see you both next summer at camp.

From the Hill — a report from Yak ma!

GIRLS: In the second great summer of camping for girls at Camp Foley, we found friendships renewed for many campers returning from last year. Some looked forward to the horseback riding and overnights to Echo Lake, while for the younger group -- the canoe overnight to Indian Island was the highlight of the season.

The silvery shores of Whitefish Lake saw many a heartwarming and fun-filled campfire with counselors and campers alike laughing in garrulous imitation of each other!

Waterskiing was a big hit for most of the girls -- we have several new slalomers!

Welcome aboard -- glugh! Some of our girls sailed in the third Whitefish Regatta in July. We're still looking for a winner, however, but come next summer -- with this exciting experience -- we can expect some real pros among the Foley girls.

RIFLE: Today the guns went into storage and I locked the door for the last time this year. A lot has happened, though, between now and when I first opened the door last Spring.

Our first annual girl-boy rifle meet proved to be close competition as the boys won by only 3 points. The girls said that the boys don't have a chance next year.

Paul Moudry promised that he will personally up the stakes in the brass counting contest.

The biggest news this summer is that Ricardo Rios and Francisco Valdes both earned their Expert in Riflery -- CONGRATULATIONS!!!

I've really enjoyed working with all the boys and girls up at the range this summer and I hope to see all of you again next year.

Greg Steiner
